- IZMAILOVO MARKET
- LUNCH
- VISIT DEAF THEATRE
- TOUR SOVIET BUNKER
- DINNER
- OVERNIGHT IN THE HOTEL

Izmaylovo Market - also known as Vernisage in Izmaylovo - is considered to be the largest collection of artisans and stallholders in Moscow, where items of decorative and applied art, fine art and folk handicrafts can be found.

In 1963, the Mimics and Gesture Theatre was opened—the first professional theatre for deaf people in the world. Through the Soviet years, this theatre made numerous successful tours at home and abroad, staging over a hundred plays through the 1990s.

Secret Soviet bunker. The Protected Command Point is one of the most unusual museums in Moscow. After taking an express elevator to a depth of 65 meters, you'll discover a whole underground city. Built during the years of the cold war, it was meant to be a communications headquarters for state leaders in case of a nuclear attack.

Day 6, Moscow

- BREAKFAST AT THE HOTEL
- MEETING WITH THE GUIDES
- VDNKH PARK TOUR
- LUNCH
- VISIT MUSEUM OF GULAG'S
- MOSCOW METRO TOUR
- DINNER
- OVERNIGHT IN THE HOTEL

VDNKh. This magnificent park in the north of Moscow features more than 250 Soviet-era palaces and pavilions, impressive arches and numerous fountains, Vostok rocket and the Soviet aircraft.

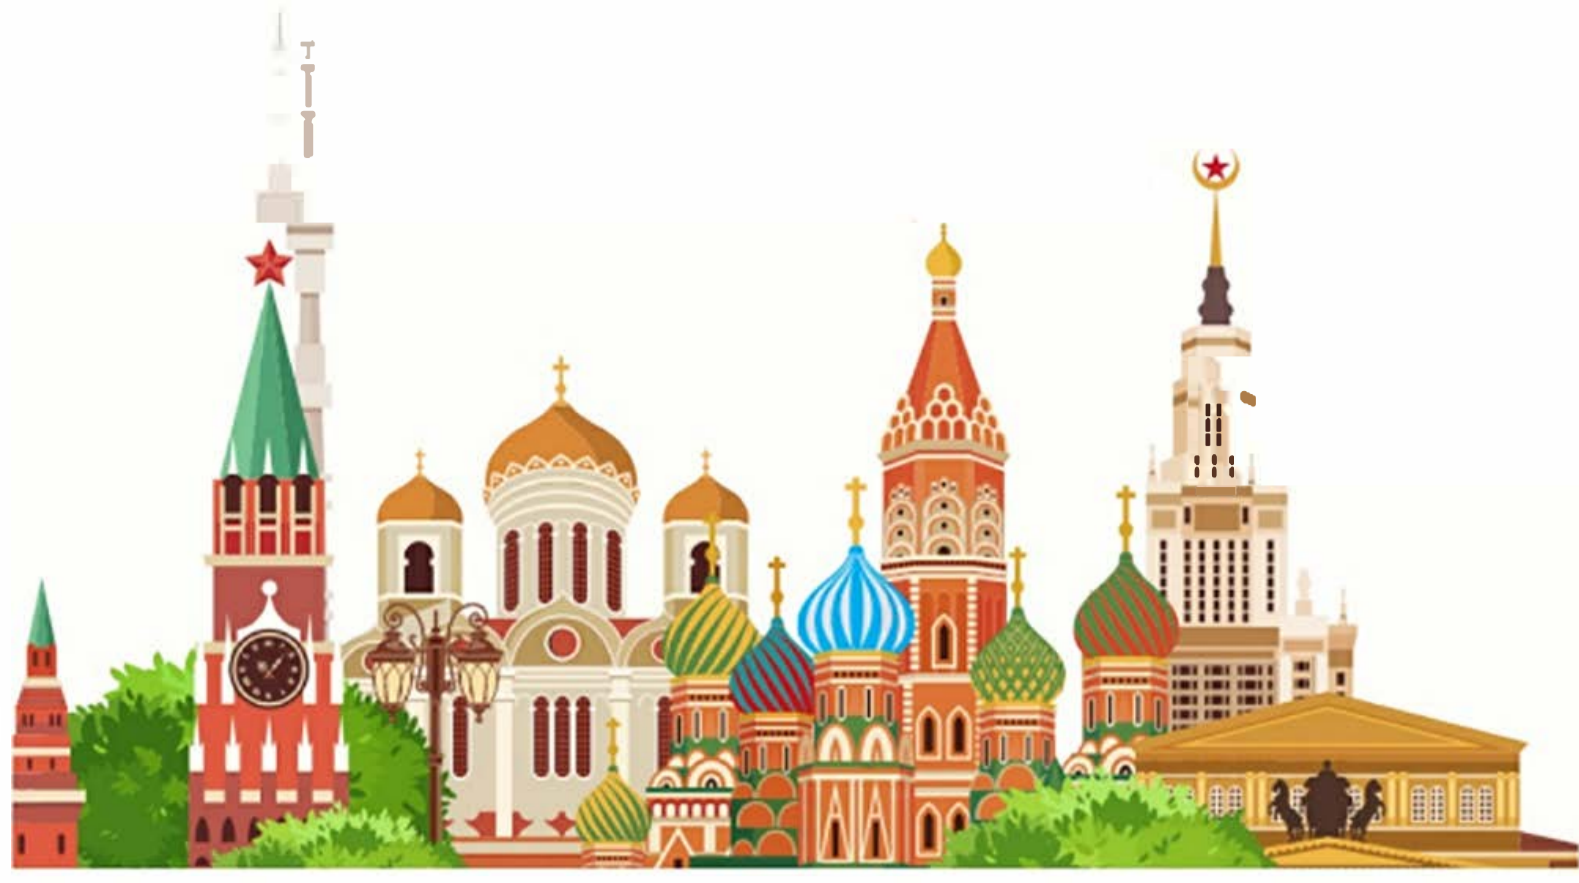

The State museum of GULAG is devoted to one of the most miserable times in our history. Gulag is the acronym for Chief Administration of Corrective Labor Camps and Colonies but nowadays this word has come to mean the Soviet repressive system itself.

The Moscow metro looks different from subways in other European capitals. Each station has a unique and individual design. The halls are finished with marble and lit with chandeliers, walls and ceilings glitter in mosaics and stained-glass windows. No surprise it was often called “marble palaces for the people.”
